

PARALEGAL TEAM LEAD

Germany - potential to work remotely

MWA presents an exciting opportunity within a rapidly growing biotechnology venture. Our client is on a mission to better the health of people worldwide working in the development of immunotherapies; harnessing the full potential of the immune system to fight cancer, infectious diseases, and other serious conditions. This company houses some of the world's leading scientists within immunotherapy. Utilising their various therapeutic areas, this company is striving to address the need for therapeutic treatments in cancer and serious diseases. Now is your chance to become part of this mission.

As the IP Paralegal Team Leader - a newly created management role - this is an opportunity to:

Join a company at the cutting-edge of immunotherapy treatments. Our client is home to some of the world's leading scientific experts, working on new breakthroughs and partnering with pioneers across the globe.

Lead the global patent and trademark paralegal team. You will have overall responsibility for the company's formalities and paralegal support across global IP team. You play an important role, ensuring the resident patent experts have the necessary support to facilitate innovative scientific discoveries.

Support the training and development of a high performing cohesive paralegal team, while delivering high-quality patent paralegal support to patent and trademark attorneys. This role is an end-to-end paralegal role, combining both the leadership and patent/trademark paralegal responsibilities.

Sit at the heart of innovation, working in partnership with patent and trademark experts to support the pioneering work of the R&D scientists. This company is a global group so you will experience different cultures, and manage a team spread across Europe and the US.

Make your mark! This is an opportunity to play an autonomous role in an innovative company. This is a chance to utilise your career experience and knowledge and lead the Intellectual Property Paralegal Team for a groundbreaking company.

This role requires a senior patent paralegal with the leadership skills to manage and support a multicultural team. If you are interested in working to support innovation at a dynamic biotechnology venture, contact us!
